A Complete Endo Tray at Your Wrist

Thanks to the magnetic attachment, MAGNEE is designed to allow for convenient wear, which makes it easier to be used in both left or right hands. The assembled powerful magnet attracting endodontic instruments during a procedure, placing endodontic instruments directly on the magnet pads is very convenient, which can arrange hands files easily. What's more, the product extremely reduces the possibility of percutaneous injuries when handling endodontic manual and rotary instruments. MAGNEE adopts the rubber materials that can ensure safety to wear, as well as assembled the foam inserted for better cleaning of the flutes of endodontic files.
